What is it like to be a high school official?

Becoming a high school official is the easiest call you'll ever make. High school officials protect the integrity of the games our kids love to play by demonstrating qualities like honesty, objectivity, consistency, courage and common sense. Officials have the opportunity to help teenagers learn life lessons that will benefit them for a lifetime.

What does a sports official do?

While officiating at sporting events, umpires, referees, and other sports officials must anticipate play and position themselves where they can best see the action, assess the situation, and identify any violations of the rules. Sports officials typically rely on their judgment to rule on infractions and penalties.
